

BOND UNIVERSITY

AUSTRALIA'S BEST EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE*

Bond University is Australia's first private, not-for-profit University, offering a personalised academic environment that enables graduates to exceed the outer limits of their potential. Accredited by Universities Australia and recognised by the Ministerial Council on Education, Employment, Training and Youth Affairs, Bond boasts Australia's best student to staff ratio of 11:1.

Located on Australia's Gold Coast, Bond University offers degrees through 4 faculties:

- Faculty of Business, Technology & Sustainable Development
 - Including the School of Hotel, Resort and Tourism Management
- Faculty of Health Sciences & Medicine
- Faculty of Humanities & Social Sciences
- Faculty of Law
- English Language Institute

Bond's personalised approach to the education process combined with its uncompromising focus on industry relevance sets Bond University apart from every other Australian university.

WHY BOND?

Access to world-class academics

Studying in small classes, you'll have one-on-one access to Australia's leading academics who mentor each student through our open door policy.

Access to first-class facilities

You'll gain a clear advantage through easy access to unparalleled academic, technological and recreational facilities.

Option to accelerate your degree

Bond's intensive study program means that you will complete your degree much sooner, with three semesters per year, teaching year round.

Ability to gain hands-on experience

Bond's intensely practical professional development approach fosters graduates who are ready, willing and able to hit the ground running and make an immediate impact in the workplace.

Access to blue-chip employers

Bond's established links with business and industry mean that, when it comes to recruitment, our graduates are the first choice for many leading blue-chip employers. Bond's Career Development Centre assists students and Alumni to find positions during and after university.

Access to global 'old school' network

Our graduates leave university with a ready-made network of friends and associates across Australia and overseas.
