Bringing that ambition to life.

Orientation Week Checklist

BEFORE YOU ARRIVE

- ☐ Supporting documentation
Check the conditions section of your 'Letter of Offer' and make sure that you have submitted all the required documentation (such as certified copies of your secondary school education certificate, translated copies of transcripts and so on). Any outstanding documents must be delivered to the Office of Admissions before you can enrol in classes. You can submit this at any time prior to Orientation Week. Alternatively it can be given to the Admissions staff in the Enrolment Hub during Orientation week.
- ☐ Computer account
If you haven't already activated your computer account online (<http://apps.bond.edu.au/student-accounts>) Information Services staff in the Main Library can help you. Your computer account is essential for accessing your Bond University email, the student computers, wireless network, iLearn and more. Your Bond email address is where all university correspondence will be sent, so make sure you check your emails regularly.
- ☐ Subject enrolment
If you haven't enrolled in your subjects online via eStudent (www.bond.edu.au/eStudent), you should speak with our eStudent Support Crew or your Faculty Program Advisor in the Enrolment Hub to finalise your subject enrolment and class timetable. Please note that your eStudent login is different from your computer account (see above). After you have enrolled in your subjects via eStudent and activated your computer account, go to www.mytimetable.bond.edu.au to select the classes you will be attending this semester.

Bond University Student Association

The Bond University Student Association (BUSA) is a voluntary group elected to represent fellow students, facilitate campus activities and coordinate clubs and events. From classes to clubs, publications to pub crawls, the Student Association members will do whatever they can to make your time at Bond sensational.

Clubs, Societies and Associations

Bond's cultural, sporting and special interest clubs offer a wealth of opportunities to meet people with whom you share a common interest. There are more than 80 clubs to choose from on campus, ranging from political parties and religious groups through to drama, debating and 30 different sports groups. For a full list, see www.bondstudents.com.au.

Your Voice on University Issues

BUSA ensures Bond students have an independent voice in the administration of the University. The Association has a representative on the University's Academic Senate, which deals with academic policy and discipline on campus. Representatives also regularly consult with faculty deans and other staff to ensure that students' opinions are given due consideration in all matters.

Scope

Scope is the weekly newsletter published by BUSA and is the most thorough and up-to-date source of campus news, reviews and information for students. Whether you're looking for light hearted entertainment, hard hitting issues or pictorial reflections of the University week, this newsletter is a Bondy's best friend.

Student Portal

BUSA operates its own website for students, the Student Portal at www.bondstudents.com. The Portal includes information about all upcoming events and announcements. Do you want to know where you can get the best student discounts? Do you want the most up-to-date information on issues that matter to students at Bond? Make the Student Portal your home page.

Club Sign-On Day

Club Sign-On Day will be held on Friday, September 9 from 11am on the Ornamental Lawns outside Café Bond. For further information on the status of an existing club or how to establish a club or society, please contact BUSA.

Student Activities Membership (SAM)

The voluntary SAM is available for students to purchase each semester and offers a wide range of benefits, including free access to the Sports Centre facilities, free or heavily discounted tickets to all events at Bond, plus much more. The money raised from this membership funds the services and events organised by BUSA. This money also contributes to the high standard of equipment and facilities available in the Sports Centre. You can sign up for your membership at the Information Centre on Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday of Orientation Week, or at the Sports Centre reception after that.
